THE LEAGUE'S HISTORY

- In 1920 the League was founded by suffragists who had fought for and won voting rights for women.
- Today the League of Women Voters empowers women and men to be informed, involved and effective voters.
- Men have been members since 1974.
- As an organization, the League is non-partisan and never supports or opposes any candidate or political party.

THE LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS....

is helping to shape the future. You can help. Would you like to become more informed and involved? Do you want to share your opinions? Then join a group that revolves around current issues. Join the League of Women Voters of Chester County.

BECOME AS INVOLVED AS YOU'D LIKE

Some members prefer only to receive our newsletter, the VOTER. Many enjoy helping periodically with election services activities. Others attend our public meetings or belong to small groups that meet regularly to discuss issues. Each member participates in the League as time permits.

Even if you don't have the time now to be active, your membership alone will strengthen our voice.

The LEAGUE of WOMEN VOTERS is VOTERS SERVICE and ISSUES & ACTION

VOTERS SERVICE

- Registers voters.
- Educates the public about elections.
- Sponsors candidate forums.
- Publishes a VOTERS GUIDE/SmartVoter of candidates who are on the ballot in each election usually two weeks before the election. The guide can be found on our Chester County website:

www.lwvccpa.org

ISSUES & ACTION

- Works with policymakers to evaluate strategies for reducing greenhouse gases and develop clean and renewable sources of energy.
- Stresses the importance of recognizing the interrelationships of air, water and land resources when designing environmental safeguards.
- Encourages land-use planning that reflects conservation and wise management of resources.
- Supports quality public education for all children.
- Works with government agencies, health care providers and advocates in order to educate community members about the health care system.
- Creates positive, lasting change at the local, state and national levels while ensuring that our constitutional rights and civil liberties are protected.

Other current issues and action are available on our website. Sharing ideas and perspectives are encouraged and always welcome, especially from new members. We want to hear from you.
